Sandford Lodge was a former Bewley home built on this estate in 1894. In 1951, the National College of Ireland started out as the Catholic Workers College here. Since 2010 the building now houses the offices of the National Adult Literacy Agency (NALA).

On Wednesday 22 August NALA will welcome visitors to their offices in Sandford Lodge between 2 and 5pm. We will offer people a tour of the building and grounds at 2.30 and 3.30. We especially welcome local people and historians who have knowledge about Sandford Lodge that they could share.
